

Catholic School Week

Monday, Feb. 1. Wacky Day. Students may dress in wacky attire. This may include mismatched clothes, silly hair, silly socks, or silly hats. Children are encouraged to spread acts of kindness to others throughout the day. We will be participating in “The Great Challenge Kindness Chain.” This will be a non-uniform day, so students may also choose to wear blue jeans and school colors. We will continue with our online Book Fair that will conclude on Friday, Feb. 5.

Tuesday, Feb. 2. Salute to Our Local Heroes Day. Students may wear red, white, and blue to show their support of our local first responders. This is a non-uniform day. Students will make a classroom Thank You card for our local heroes.

Wednesday, Feb. 3. Sleepy Time Fun Day. Students may wear their pajamas to school and bring a drink and a simple healthy breakfast item of fruit, granola bar, or personal choice item. Pajama pants should be knee-length or longer of “non-see-through” material, with waist-length tops and sleeves. No slippers. This is a non-uniform day, students also may choose to wear blue jeans and school colors.

Thursday, Feb. 4. Into the Future Day. Students may dress as how they see themselves in the future. This can be a future vocation or an aged version of themselves for example, a grandma or grandpa. This is a non-uniform day, so students also may choose to wear blue jeans and school colors. PSA will provide a treat. Students may bring a drink. Teachers and students will select an appropriate movie to enjoy.

Friday, Feb. 5. Decorated Mask Day. A mask will be sent home for students to decorate. A contest will be held to select the most creative mask in each classroom. A $5.00 Dairy Queen gift card will be awarded to each classroom winner and a $15.00 gift card will be awarded to the “ALL SCHOOL WINNER!” Students may wear their favorite sports team shirt/sweatshirt or dress in school colors. Holy Family School’s traditional “Shower for Baby Jesus” will begin with a Parade of Giving. Each class will present their gifts for baby Jesus and their food for the Parish Pantry to Fr. Steve. Food may also be brought for the parish pantry. School will dismiss at 11:15 a.m.

We hope our children will enjoy the blessings of celebrating Holy Family Catholic School during this special week with their classmates, faculty, and staff.
